

St. Petersburg-Clearwater International Airport earns state award

By Steve Huettel, Times Staff Writer
Posted: Aug 12, 2010 06:40 PM

St. Petersburg-Clearwater International Airport took a top award at a convention of airport executives in downtown Tampa this week.

The state Department of Transportation named the facility Florida's commercial service airport of the year. St. Petersburg-Clearwater recently finished a $20.9 million, two-year renovation of its passenger terminal with beach cottage architecture and a collection of public art from 30 Florida artists. The DOT also cited the airport's safety and service achievements.